10. [] LIAISON In response to his query, told Mike Hornblow, NSC staff, that I was quite sure we had forwarded the Post Mortem on the Mayaguez incident to the Senate and House Select Committees but that I would check. I also filled him in on the agreement we had reached with Chairman Dante Fascell, Subcommittee on International Political & Military Affairs, House International Relations Committee, that we would not have to provide the material he requested to him through GAO but that we would do so directly to his Subcommittee.

11. [] LIAISON Burton Wides, Senate Select Committee staff, called and said not trying to end run [] Review Staff, asked if he could see me concerning certain material on electronic surveillance which we had pulled together for the Muskie Subcommittee on Surveillance, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, last year which was mentioned in an interview with John Warner, OGC. He asked if he could set up an interview with me to go into this matter explaining that his real interest is in getting to the data base that went into the report and he felt that this would facilitate his ability to be more specific in his request to the Review Staff resulting in a faster turn around time in response to his request. I told Wides that I did not think an interview with me was necessary and that either I or the Review Staff would be back in touch with him. [] was advised.

9. [] LIAISON Accompanied Carl Duckett, DDS&T, to a breakfast session with approximately thirty Senate Staff Directors. Duckett gave a short talk on the current situation involving the congressional investigations and their impact on the Agency and a question and answer period followed. Bill Miller, of the Senate Select Committee staff, who had been scheduled to speak to this group last week but who was rained out, attended the session today but made no remarks. Following the meeting, Bill Simpson, Legislative Assistant to Senator James O. Eastland (D., Miss.), called me to say Mr. Duckett had reinforced the position of "the believers" and had brought around a number of people who had previously been critics of the Agency.

10. [] LIAISON Chuck Meissner, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving next week for an extended trip to Europe where he will cover the Producers and Consumers Conference in Paris, the meeting in Bonn on Offset Agreements and International Monetary Structures, sessions in London on Coffee Agreements, and Multilateral Commodity discussions in Geneva. He said he was also interested in international wheat agreements and asked if we could have someone talk with him about the issues which could be expected to be raised at these sessions. He emphasized that he did not need to know the positions that the various participants would take, he is only interested in our assessment of the issues that will arise.

11. [] LIAISON Saw Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, very briefly and asked him if we couldn't schedule the briefing on the latest Presidential finding under the Foreign Assistance Act now that floor action on the Defense appropriations bill has been completed. Preston thanked me for reminding him of this and we made immediate arrangements for the Director to meet with the Defense Subcommittee on Monday at 10:30 a.m.
